FIRST ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH, SUNNYVALE

... The new $325,000.00 sanctuary of the First Assembly of God Church at the corner of Mary and Iowa streets in Sunnyvale was dedicated on Sunday, June 7, at 2:30 p.m. This is the final building in a master plan with a value of over one million dollars.

The contemporary building, seating 850, was designed by Ralph Thompson and built by Ted Johnson Construction Company. Beside the auditorium, the building houses a chapel seating 50 which will be open daily for prayer and meditation. In addition, there are four classrooms, a large choir room and bride's, babies', ushers' and rest rooms.

The construction of the building is of natural cedar, stone and glass with the same effect in both exterior and interior. The entrance is from the off-street parking area, through a courtyard at the main entrance.

First Assembly filed incorporation papers with the State of California in 1924 and established its first home at the corner of Washington and Carroll streets. In 1957 it moved to its present location.

The Reverend Joseph Gerhart, District Superintendent for the Northern California-Nevada District delivered the dedication message. Special guests for the day included the Reverend William Vickery, District Secretary-Treasurer, Reverend Leland Keys, pastor of Bethel Church, San Jose, and Evangelist Claude Wood.

When completed the balcony will seat an additional 234. Baptismal facilities are provided along with several classrooms. The architectural styling is contemporary with an octagon shape and a Spanish influence to harmonize with the existing building.

The groundbreaking ceremony on Memorial Day was conducted by Superintendent Joseph L. Gerhart. District C.A. President, Jim Argue, participated in the service and ministered in the evening meeting.

PASTOR JOHN SURRATT

... Waterford, reports, "We have had a fine revival with Evangelist Ernie Rogers. We have also remodeled the front of our building and put on a new shake roof. The C.A.'s bought the church a new P.A. system and song books. We are rejoicing in God's blessings."

FRIENDS OF THE YEAR

... Ed and Goldia Anderson were honored during Bethany Park Family Camp as Rev. Stanley Michael presented them with a special "Friends of the Year" 1970 award in behalf of Hillcrest Children's home. Each year the General Council Department of Benevolence gives this special award to some one who has made an outstanding contribution to the overall good of the Home. We are all very proud to have the award given to Ed and Goldia this year. This District gave $11,009 to Hillcrest in 1969 which represented 125 participating Assemblies.

BETHANY PARK FAMILY CAMP

... was outstanding again this year as there was such a beautiful, free, flowing move of the Holy Spirit throughout the ten days of services. The ministries of Bible Teacher Erick Dando and of Evangelist Joe Mazzu were very rich and brought much spiritual blessing to the campers. Reverend David Womack ministered for the annual Missionary Day Rally and was greatly appreciated and enjoyed.

Bethany Bible College staff prepared outstanding meals during the camp

A San Juan Capistrano School teacher has been selected "Mother of the Year" by Hoag Memorial Presbyterian Hospital in Newport Beach. Mrs. James Baker, mother of five, and former Assembly of God Missionary in Taiwan, was nominated by her 10-year-old daughter, Linda, a student at Killybrooke School in Costa Mesa. She was selected by the judges from more than 16,000 school children's entries, qualifying for a first prize of round-trip tickets for two to Hawaii.

Linda's essay explained her feelings about her mother. "I think my mother should receive the 1970 "Mother of the Year" award for all her patience, sweetness and understanding she deserves it. My mother is a wonderful and very special kind of person. Even though she has to teach all day and come home to five children at 5:00 exhausted, she still takes time to make our home the warmest, happiest place on earth. She also makes the most delicious meals when she comes home, tired as she is. When we are sick she is never too tired or hurried to give us the Best Tender, loving care there is.

"People may wonder where she gets her strength and patience, but of course I know, God. Ever since we were born and all during the years we were missionaries in Taiwan, she and my father have kept a wonderful Christian atmosphere in our home. During the 25 years my parents were missionaries many, many people have felt their love, concern, and compassion, but she always has a lot more to spare, and I'm sure that as long as she lives, she'll never run out.

"I hope you pick her, but whether you do or not, I'll always know in my heart, that greater than all mothers, she's just TOPS!!"

Mrs. Baker was overwhelmed by her selection. Last year her daughter's essay had placed her in the finalist division; this year she came home a winner.

The soft-spoken brunette attributes all her accomplishments and great serenity to an absolute faith and reliance on God.

As a missionary's daughter who grew up in China before and after the Communist takeover, Mrs. Baker is keenly aware of the structure and operation of Communist thought. She remembers traveling to Shanghai when she was only four years old, leaving behind her home and all material possessions.

Her husband is also a native of China, and it was to his home province of Yunnan that she and he returned after their marriage. Both worked in a local Bible college teaching and ministering. All five of the Baker children were born in China.

The last 16 years were spent in Taiwan, where the children were enrolled in boarding school. Their oldest son, Roland, now 22, returned to the United States to continue his education. After 24 years of service in Asia, the Bakers also decided to come home.

Marjorie Baker teaches social studies, reading and English to sixth graders at Dick Herr's revitalized facility in San Juan Capistrano.

Herr calls her a teacher of "unusual ability" and lauds her rapport with her students.

Mrs. Baker tries to point out the great opportunities available to American youngsters during her social studies lessons.

"It is a matter of appreciation. Students must realize the tremendous opportunities available in this country that other countries just don't have. Only one-tenth of the children in Taiwan can go on to college, and then they are not assured of their choice of study. I try to make our youngsters aware of this opportunity, to develop an appreciation and dedication."

The Baker's oldest daughter, Joan, 20, is attending Woodbury College. Marlene will graduate from Mesa High School this year as salutatorian; Lori is in second grade.

Mrs. Baker does not believe her profession has kept her from fulfilling her responsibilities as a housewife and mother. Her children attest to her success.

"My full time has always been connected with missionary work. Now I am joyously experiencing working with these sixth graders. I don't believe my work has hindered the successful development of our family. On the contrary, I think they have learned a lot from observing on what things I place importance.

"Whatever has been accomplished has been with the help of the Lord. We can't do anything alone. The children have all learned to pray and ask God for guidance."

SPIRIT

By Chaplain (Maj.) Richard D. Wood

The Richard Wood Family

I've read about a fellow who was forever playing the cello which had only one string. But to make matters worse, he played only one note. Hour after hour, day after day, he kept his finger in one place, producing a single monotonous tone. When his wife timidly pointed out that other cellists were constantly moving their fingers up and down from one position to another, he replied, "Of course, other players keep moving their fingers. They're trying to find the right place—the right note! I have found it!"

What can you do for a person like that? How do you ever help anyone when pride has shut the door? How do you even begin to get through to one whose mind is closed toward the possibility of any failure or fault on his part?

Jesus drew an unforgettable dramatic picture of the proud Pharisee and the lowly publican. The proud Pharisee was unable to recognize the truth about himself, but he was also beyond the reach of God's help. He was quite able to take care of himself. His prayer was only an effort to let God know how good a man he was, how much better than that miserable publican. He was completely sure of himself and satisfied. Thus, pride closed the door on help!

Think of the man or woman who is sick with a form or degree of alcoholism. How often we would give anything in the world to be able to help them, but their pride makes it impossible: they do not want help—they can handle it themselves. All of the forgiving, healing, strengthening power of God, equal to any human need, is waiting for them, but they cannot receive it—not until something happens to their pride and they admit they cannot handle it alone.

What is true for the person sick with alcoholism is no less true for us—you and me. How often we shut out the help and healing which might be ours because we are unwilling to leave the place of the Pharisee to kneel with the publican and say, "God, be merciful. God, help me!"

The magazine section of a Sunday newspaper a few years ago carried a memorable article on the most important words in a successful marriage. The author named three little words which need to be repeated again and again: "I love you." Then he pointed to three other little words, equally important because their use may open the only way in which the marriage can be maintained: three little words, "I am sorry."

Proud ones can never bring themselves to speak these words, to admit a failure on their part, to confess a wrongdoing. Only "the poor in spirit" are able to open the door through which help may come. No wonder the Goodspeed version of the New Testament makes the first beatitude to read: "Blessed are those who feel their spiritual need, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven!"

(Ed: Richard D. Wood is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Claude Wood. He is a member of the Northern California and Nevada District and is presently serving as Protestant Chaplain at Lindsey Chapel in Weisbaden, Germany, with the U. S. Air Force.)

LT. RICHARD L. ADAMS IS NEWEST CHAPLAIN

On June 9 a new chaplain was sworn in at Fort Ord. Lt. Richard L. Adams became the newest Assemblies of God Chaplain by receiving the oath of office from the soon to be retired Chaplain (LTC) James H. Woods. The prayer of dedication was prayed by the senior Assemblies of God Chaplain (COL) John A. Lindvall. (All three of these Chaplains are members of the Northern California-Nevada District.)

Chaplain Adams began his ministry as Associate Pastor at the Glad Tidings Assembly in Vancouver, Washington, in May 1963. His most recent assignment was as Pastor of the Valley Assembly in Danville, Ca. Chaplain Adams will begin his initial active duty assignment at Fort Bliss, Texas, in the grade of Captain. He will be accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Patricia (Boyd) Adams, daughter Kimberly Ann, age three, and son Richard Leroy II, age one.

Chaplain Adams graduated from Bethany Bible College with his BA degree and from Golden Gate Seminary where he received his Masters in Divinity. His education was further developed by his participation in the Army Seminary Program.

(Ed: We are very proud of Rich and Patti and will uphold them in our prayers as they begin their ministry to the military.)

Mrs. Adams, Chaplain Adams, Chaplain Lindvall, Chaplain Woods.

CHAPLAINS AHRNSBRACK & LINZEY

Chaplain Stan Linzey and Chaplain Leonard Ahrensbrack have both been selected to receive further education during the coming year. Commander Linzey has been serving as Protestant Chaplain here in California at Moffett Field (USN) for the past two years. He and his family have moved to Newport, Rhode Island, where the Chaplain will enroll in the U. S. Navy Chaplain's Graduate School. Chaplain Ahrensbrack is serving in the U. S. Naval Training Center, Orlando, Florida. He will move his family in August and enter Princeton University in September for postgraduate studies. These men have been highly honored to have been selected from a large number of applicants for this year of study.

(Ed: We are proud of our Chaplains as they have established outstanding records of service in the military. Our other District Navy Chaplain is Commander David Plank who is beginning his third year of duty at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland.)

Christian DAY NURSERY

Fremont Christian School is sponsored by the First Assembly of God of Fremont, Rev. Leroy Cloud, pastor. The school was started in September, 1968, with 72 students (kindergarten through sixth grade), four teachers, and the principal, C. K. Rankin. In September of 1969 the new $320,000.00 building was ready. A seventh grade had been added, along with three teachers, and the enrollment was expanded to 170 students.

This summer the school is sponsoring a nine-week Summer Enrichment Program consisting of arts, crafts, films, field trips, and some academic study. There is one teacher and 25 students.

When school opens in September of this fall it will include kindergarten through eighth grade. Two more teachers have been added to the staff making a total of nine teachers and the projected enrollment is for 250 students.

Modesto Christian School began operation in 1962. That September there were 40 students in kindergarten through grade six with three teachers. George McNeven was the director.

Since 1962 the school has expanded to include thirteen classrooms and other functional facilities, and has also added seventh and eighth grades. This fall the school is planning for 250 students with a staff of nineteen. Don Shapland is the present director.

Modesto Christian School is sponsored by Neighborhood Church where Reverend R. Blakeley is the pastor.

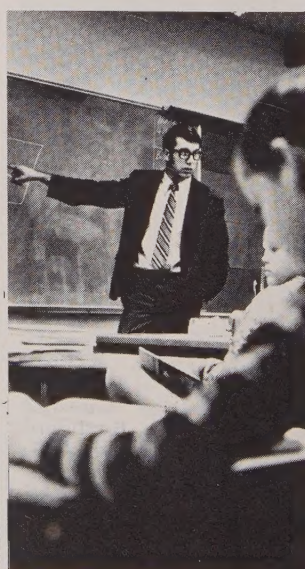

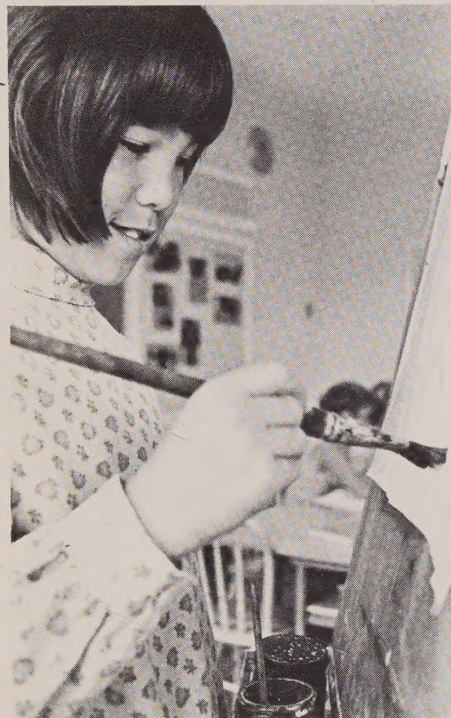

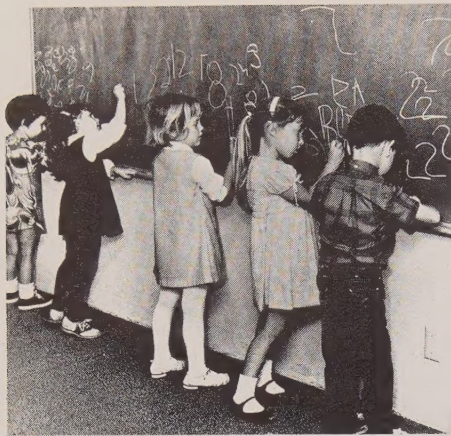

First Assembly of God, Sunnyvale, is now completing its seventh year as the sponsor of a day nursery and day school program.

On September 14, 1963, First Assembly of God Day Nursery was started with a state license for pre-school children. By 1965 the licensed capacity had been increased to its present level of 40.

In September of 1964 Sunnyvale Christian School was started with a kindergarten class of eight students. From this small beginning the school has grown to its present size of 105 students and six full-time teachers in kindergarten through grade five. The school looks forward to adding grade six in the fall of 1970, with further expansion adding more than one classroom in each grade.

Rev. Paul Seaberg, recently appointed missionary to Sierra Leone, West Africa, has been director and principal for the past several years.

Salinas Christian School, sponsored by Calvary Assembly of God, opened its doors in the fall of 1969.

and Schools EVERY first year the school offered every school classes with plans to open one grade each year. In 1969 kindergarten was added and first grade classes are projected for the year of 1970.

A full graded curriculum is being offered beginning with the three year old. Basic principles are taught using the "Four R's" including Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, and Religion. Reverence, the Bible, and Patriotism are all integral parts of the course of study. In addition there is a chapel service on Tuesday and Friday mornings.

Why Did We Start

A Christian School?

Because the need is urgent and growing.

Because it is an ideal evangelistic outreach of the church.

Because it is a waste to allow expensive educational facilities to sit empty between Sundays.

Because alerted parents are seeking out schools where in addition to usual subjects their children are taught spiritual, moral, and patriotic values.

Basic to the understanding of religion is the knowledge of God's Word and God's laws. Christ is presented in every class session. Bible is taught as the study of God's world; arithmetic reveals God as a God of order; and history shows his dealings with the nations.

Through the school we have found a new way to open our church to the community, and the community to the church.

The Green Valley Day Nursery, in cooperation with First Assembly of God in Placerville, opened in September of 1968 with a licensed capacity for 24 children. It operates as a day care center for working mothers, with some structured learning using the Peabody Language Development Program.

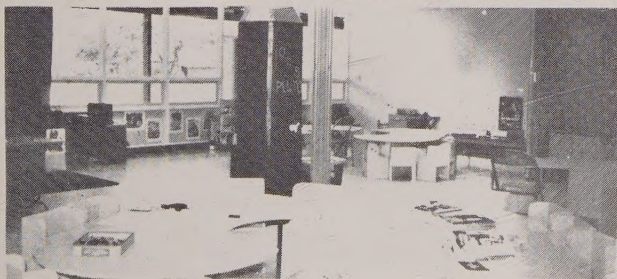

The staff has grown to include three teachers and a director, Miss Evelyn Cottrell. There are plans to extend the capacity to 34 children.

Kiddie World is sponsored by Roseville First Assembly of God and is licensed for 39 children.

The daily program begins with a free play time period, followed by structured learning experiences. After snacks the children are given opportunity for outdoor play. Lunches are provided and the afternoon is set aside for naps and further supervised activity.

The school plans to enlarge its program in the near future.

BETHANAIRE'S COMPLETE SUMMER TOUR

Five collegians from Bethany Bible College known as the Bethanaires have just completed a tour throughout the Western states. The musical group conducted 49 services in 36 days and traveled 5,600 miles in six states during the first half of their tour which commenced May 31, 1970, on Bethany's campus in Santa Cruz, California.

During the remaining five weeks of tour, the Bethanaires visited C.A. camps in Northern California and Oregon. They served a two-fold purpose at the camps: they served as counselors for the C.A.'s in attendance and provided the special music for the camps. The group visited Mt. Lassen C.A. Camp, Bethany Park Camp, and Old Oak Ranch C.A. Camp during their stay in California.

Traveling with the Bethanaires this year are the following young people: Byron Klaus from Chicago, Illinois, whose father pastors the German Assembly of God in Chicago. Byron is a transfer student from the University of Illinois and is a junior at Bethany. Clarice Shaw from Calcutta, India, is a graduate of Bethany last May with a grade point average of 3.83 (4.0 being perfect). Clarice plans to enter Santa Clara University in September to complete a M.A. in Education. Linda Garrison from Buhl, Idaho, is the pianist for the Bethanaires. She will return to Bethany this fall as a sophomore. Gloria Craig from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, is a Bible major at Bethany and will graduate in the spring of 1971. She traveled with the Ambassador Choir last school year. John Hachquet from Las Vegas, Nevada, is a junior at Bethany. John traveled with the Spurrlows last year.

The advisor traveling with the group this summer was Mr. Bob Hughes, Director of College Relations at Bethany. He reported that, not only were young people touched in the services, but that about 25 teens were saved as God met their needs.

The Bethanaires will be available for weekend ministry as of September 20, 1970. Interested persons should contact: Mr. Bob Hughes, Director of College Relations, 800 Bethany Drive, Santa Cruz, Ca 95060.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

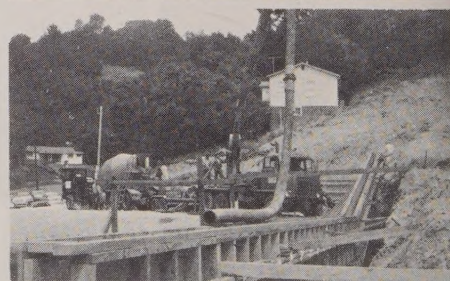

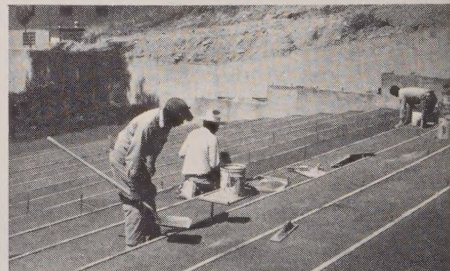

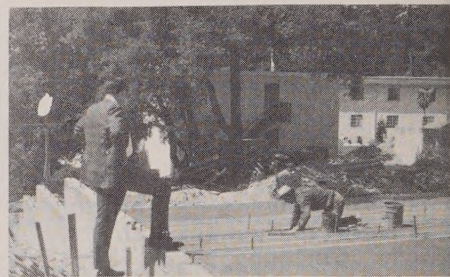

This year eight students from Bethany were selected as outstanding leaders, and their names were published in the national publication "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." They were recognized at commencement exercises as dynamic student leaders in all phases of campus involvement. They are: Clarice Shaw, Calcutta, India; George Nagato, Honolulu, Hawaii; Janice LaDuke, Albany, Oregon; Gary Bruegman, White City, Oregon; Kathy Holderbein, Santa Cruz, California; Dan Billings, Myrtle Creek, Oregon; Gordon Elder, Elkhart, Indiana; and Leland Brodehl, Lodi, California.

EDUCATION CENTER PROGRESSES

Praise the Lord! Due to a generous gift from Martin & Martin Construction Company, the new 14,000 square foot Education Center for Bethany Bible College is well under way. Martin donated all labor and materials for the framing of the two-story structure which is nearly completed.

The project has been undertaken by faith and is being completed as the money is made available to the college through the gifts of friends and alumni. All funds should be sent to Bethany Bible College, 800 Bethany Drive, Santa Cruz, Ca 95060, and should be designated "Education Center."

$50,000 worth of framing materials and labor donated by Martin.

Comptroller Donald H. West surveys the construction.

Workmen finish stair-step foundation for the 300 seat forum lecture hall.

The retaining wall surrounding the building is poured with a 30-foot boom and concrete pump.
